Geographic Presence

Our work spans multiple regions within Pakistan and extends to international relief efforts where humanitarian crises demand urgent attention. From flood-affected communities to conflict zones like Gaza, we focus on providing aid, health services, education, and sustainable development programs to those who need it most

Our Theory of Change

At the heart of our work lies a clear and purposeful pathway from need to lasting impact. Our theory of change illustrates how we identify challenges, intervene effectively, and create meaningful outcomes for communities.

Problem

Many communities we serve face extreme vulnerability due to poverty, lack of access to clean water, inadequate healthcare, disrupted education, and humanitarian crises such as conflicts or natural disasters. These challenges prevent individuals from leading dignified and healthy lives.

Intervention

We respond through programs designed to address immediate needs while creating long-term solutions. Our interventions include:

- Providing emergency relief and humanitarian aid where crises occur
- Ensuring access to clean water, sanitation, and healthcare
- Supporting education and skill-building programs
- Promoting livelihoods and community development projects
- Strengthening local systems through partnerships and capacity-building

Outcome

Through these interventions, individuals and communities experience measurable improvements:

- Families gain access to life-saving aid and basic services
- Children continue their education despite adversity
- Communities develop the skills and resources needed for sustainable livelihoods
- Vulnerable groups are empowered to participate fully in society with dignity and independence

Impact

Our ultimate goal is to foster resilient communities where individuals are healthy, educated, and equipped to thrive, regardless of circumstance. We aim to create a world in which vulnerability is met with support, suffering is alleviated with compassion, and every human life is respected and valued.
This framework guides all our programs, ensuring that every action we take is purposeful, accountable, and aligned with our mission, vision, and core values. By working systematically from problem to impact, we ensure that our efforts bring real, lasting change for the people we serve.

Impact

At MTJ Foundation, our programs and initiatives are guided by internationally recognized standards and frameworks to ensure that our work is both impactful and accountable. Aligning with global principles allows us to maximize the positive effect of our interventions while maintaining the highest standards of humanitarian practice.

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the statement of financial position, income and expenditure account, the statement of cash flows and the statement of changes in equity together with the notes forming part thereof conform with the accounting and reporting standards as applicable in Pakistan and give the information required by the Companies Act, 2017 (XIX of 2017), in the manner so required and respectively give a true and fair view of the state of the Organization's affairs as at June 30, 2025, and of the profit/(loss) and other comprehensive income/(loss), the changes in equity and its cash flows for the year then ended.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (ISAs) as applicable in Pakistan. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Organization in accordance with the International Ethics Standards Board for Accountants' Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants as adopted by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Pakistan (the Code) and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Responsibilities of Management and Board of Directors for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with the accounting and reporting standards as applicable in Pakistan and the requirements of Companies Act, 2017(XIX of 2017) and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Organization's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Organization or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Board of directors is responsible for overseeing the Organization's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs as applicable in Pakistan will always detect a material misstatement when it exists.

Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with ISAs as applicable in Pakistan, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Organization's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Organization's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Organization to cease to continue as a going concern.

- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with the board of directors regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

2- Basis of Preparation

2.1- Statement of compliance

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) issued by International Accounting Standard Board (IASB) as applicable in Pakistan.

2.2- Basis of measurement

These financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention except stated otherwise in the forthcoming accounting policies. In these financial statements, except for the amounts reflected in cash flow statement, all transactions have been accounted for on accrual basis.

2.3- Functional and presentation currency

The financial statements are presented in Pakistani Rupees, which is the MTJ Foundation's functional and presentation currency.

2.4- Significant accounting estimates and judgments

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with approved accounting standards requires management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of policies and reported amounts of assets, liabilities, income and expenses. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and various other factors that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis of making the judgments about the carrying values of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the period in which estimates are revised if the revision affects only that period, or in the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future periods.

Significant areas requiring the use of management estimates in these financial statements relate to the useful life of depreciable assets and provision for taxation. However, assumptions and judgments made by management in the application of accounting policies that have significant effect on the financial statements are not expected to result in material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities.

Looking Ahead: 2025–2026

As we look toward 2025–2026, we do so with renewed purpose and a deep sense of responsibility to the communities we serve. The coming years represent an opportunity to not only expand our reach, but to strengthen the quality, sustainability, and long-term impact of our work.

Our vision for the future is rooted in listening, to communities, to partners, and to the lessons learned through our programs. We aim to build on what works, refine what can be improved, and respond thoughtfully to emerging needs in an ever-changing humanitarian landscape.

Strategic Priorities

Our strategic focus for 2025–2026 centers on:

- Deepening impact across healthcare, water, education, and livelihood initiatives
- Strengthening internal systems for monitoring, evaluation, transparency, and reporting
- Investing in people, processes, and partnerships to ensure sustainability
- Placing dignity, inclusion, and community ownership at the heart of every intervention

Planned Projects

In the coming period, we plan to:

- Expand healthcare access through enhanced diagnostic and treatment support
- Introduce and scale livelihood and mobility initiatives that promote independence and self-reliance
- Support education and skill-building programs that empower individuals, particularly women and youth
- Respond to humanitarian needs through targeted, community-driven interventions

Innovation & Scale

Innovation will remain a key driver of our growth. We will:

- Leverage digital tools to improve service delivery, reporting, and donor engagement
- Scale proven models to reach underserved and marginalized communities
- Use data and learning to inform decision-making and improve outcomes
- Explore new partnerships and approaches to amplify impact responsibly

Funding Needs

Achieving these goals requires sustained and flexible support. Our funding priorities include:

- Program funding to expand and strengthen core initiatives
- Flexible funding to respond swiftly to emerging needs and emergencies
- Investment in systems, technology, and human resources to support long-term growth
- Support for innovation, learning, and continuous improvement

With the continued partnership of our donors and stakeholders, we are confident in our ability to create lasting, meaningful change.

Gratitude & Acknowledgements

None of this work would be possible without the people who stand beside us in purpose and action.

We extend our deepest gratitude to our donors, whose trust and generosity make our mission possible. Your belief in our work fuels every program, every service, and every life touched.

We thank our partners for their collaboration, expertise, and shared commitment to creating sustainable impact. Together, we are stronger and more effective.

To our volunteers, we are endlessly grateful. Your time, compassion, and dedication are the quiet force behind so much of what we achieve.

And to the community leaders and members who place their trust in us, thank you for welcoming us, guiding our work, and walking this journey with us.
